

Speaker

Dayanand Tandon
Chief Executive Officer
CREATE

Dayanand Tandon, born in 1956 is a Post Graduate in Economics and a Certified Associate of Indian Institute of Bankers (CAIIB). Having worked in scheduled bank for 8 years he joined a State level Training Institute of Industries Department as Senior Faculty and worked for 7 years before initiating a social organisation named CREATE in Uttar Pradesh.

He has been working for the last 34 years in the area of planning and implementation of large scale social development projects for women and children in education, health and livelihood, water and sanitation. Organised training programmes for trainers and development manager on various social and development issues. He has also been involved in entrepreneurship development and management programme for trainers engaged in development work at rural base. He has with children in difficult circumstances imparted education/training and counseling for entrepreneurs backed by service and technology linkages.