

Speaker

Madhu Malhotra

*Director, Gender Identity Sexuality Program
Amnesty International - International Secretariat*

- Madhu Malhotra is at present, Director, Gender Sexuality and Identity Program at Amnesty International in UK. Gender Sexuality and Identity program provides strategic vision and leadership, and ensures that Amnesty has research legal and policy analysis and campaigning skills to challenge such abuses effectively and to support advocacy for effective redress including supporting human rights defenders who are confronting such abuses.
 - Experience: Madhu has over 18 years of experience in development, humanitarian response and human rights. She has worked with various international agencies like Oxfam-GB, UNICEF and Amnesty International. She has worked extensively on humanitarian response, livelihoods, sexual health, gender and human rights in Asia-Pacific region.
- Education: Madhu has a Masters in Social Sciences from Tata Institute of Social Sciences (TISS) with a specialization in Criminology and Corrections.