

Speaker

Uchita de Zoysa
Global Coordinator
The Widening Circle

- Uchita de Zoysa is an author, strategist, speaker and frontline leader in mobilizing civil society and stakeholder alliances for shaping the global sustainability movement since the 1992 Rio Earth Summit.
 - Experience: Uchita is the Global Coordinator of The Widening Circle (TWC) campaign for a global citizen's movement, Chairman of Global Sustainability Solutions (GLOSS), Executive Director of Centre for Environment and Development (CED) and initiator of the Peoples Sustainability Treaties at the recently concluded Rio+20 Summit.
 - Publications: Uchita is the author of several books including "It has to be CLIMATE SUSTAINABILITY", editor of 'Asian Review on Sustainable Consumption'. He was also a member of the committee drafting the 'The NGO Alternative Treaties for Rio Earth Summit 1992', and co-author of the "Oslo Declaration on Sustainable Consumption".