

Speaker

Abhay Kumar

*Associate Vice president- R& D
Eureka Forbes Limited*

Dr. Kumar has credited more than 22 years of immeasurable experience in the water purification systems. He has developed different ground-breaking technologies to concentrate on the different water quality issues in the country and abroad. He has visited several countries including UK, Chile, Hungary, UAE, Thailand, Netherlands, Germany, Brazil, Paraguay and presented several papers on water purification. His scientific research involves the deep understanding of the water quality and behavioral changes due to over exploitation and pollution.

He has published more than 20 scientific research papers /articles and participated in more than 25 National and International conferences. He has also been interacting with more than 50 Institutions for water quality research and technology development.