

TARagram Mela 2015

Sustainable Livelihoods for Bundelkhand

India is recognised worldwide for its gathering of people in form of various cultural, traditional and religious Melas. Melas – traditional community gatherings symbolised celebration, sharing and learning of traditional knowledge and values to move towards a better future. With this spirit of harmony and festivity Melas provide a platform to come together and share experiences for progress and prosperity of communities.

To celebrate this “festival of learning” Development Alternatives invites you to its annual event “TARagram Mela 2015: Sustainable Livelihoods for Bundelkhand”. TARagram Mela is an annual event of Development Alternatives and is organised in its TARagram Orchha Campus at Bundelkhand. The main objective of TARagram Mela is to share experiences and learnings of various development efforts in Bundelkhand among the communities of Bundelkhand. "TARagram Mela 2015: Sustainable Livelihoods for Bundelkhand" will be organised on 9th October 2015 with the objective to showcase sustainable resources for enhancing employability for Bundelkhand region and provide sustainable employment guidance to youth.

The participants in this event will include communities, CSOs and government agencies working in Bundelkhand region, local government officials, students and community media groups.
